

Media Advisory – For Planning Purposes Only

Feb. 16, 2010

Governor Rendell to Hold Statewide Town Hall Meeting on First Anniversary of Federal Recovery Act

Harrisburg – Governor Edward G. Rendell will join hundreds of college, business and community leaders at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 17, to discuss the impact of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act in Pennsylvania. Governor Rendell will be at Shippensburg University to lead a meeting that will be connected via Internet to audiences at the University of Pittsburgh and state universities at Kutztown, West Chester, East Stroudsburg, and Edinboro.

Participants at each location will talk about how the Recovery Act has had a positive impact by helping to create jobs and stimulate the economy.

Date/Time:

Wednesday, Feb. 17 – 3 p.m.

Locations:

- Shippensburg University in the Forum of the John L. Grove College of Business-Basement
- University of Pittsburgh in David Lawrence Hall, Room 211
- Kutztown University in McFarland Student Union, Alumni Auditorium, Room 183
- West Chester University at 25 University Ave., Room 148
- East Stroudsburg University in the Beers Lecture Hall
- Edinboro University in the Frank G. Pogue Student Center, Multipurpose Room

Media contact: Gary Tuma or Barry Ciccocioppo, 717-783-1116

###